AFRICAN UNITED BUSINESS CONFEDERATION (AUBC) WELCOMES NEW ESKOM GROUP CEO, MR. DAN MAROKANE.

Johannesburg, South Africa - The African United Business Confederation (AUBC) warmly welcomes the newly appointed Eskom's Group Chief Executive (CEO), Mr. Dan Marokane. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Mr. Marokane on his well-deserved appointment. Mr. Marokane is a highly qualified professional who holds a Bachelor of Science (BSc) in chemical engineering, Master's degree in petroleum engineering, among other notable credentials, he also possesses a Master of Business Administration (MBA).

Mr. Marokane served as a Head of Group Capital in Eskom from 2010 to 2015, also and various senior positions such as the Executive Director at Tongaat – Hulett and possess more than 20 years of senior leadership experience, he brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to his new role in the state-owned power utility. We believe that his proven track record and leadership skills position him well to tackle the challenges that Eskom faces.

“The AUBC looks forward to facilitate an engagement with Mr. Dan Marokane after his first 100 days in office. This will provide an opportunity for our key stakeholders to gain insights into his strategies and solutions to address the energy crisis and strengthen the growth of Eskom. We believe that such dialogue is crucial for the sustainable development of the energy sector and the broader business community”. AUBC President George Sebulela concluded
