FROM THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

15 November 2023

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
AUBC Media Release

AFRICAN UNITED BUSINESS CONFEDERATION (AUBC) PARTICIPATION IN QATAR PRESIDENTIAL STATE VISIT.

Johannesburg, South Africa. The African United Business Confederation (AUBC) was honoured to participate in the official state visit with His Excellency, Mr. Cyril Ramaphosa, President of the Republic of South African to Qatar. This momentous occasion underscored AUBC's commitment to foster strong economic ties and collaboration between African nations and Qatar.

The state visit, organized in coordination with the South African Government, State of Qatar, Qatari Businessmen Association and the Qatar Chamber of Commerce, demonstrated the AUBC's commitment to endorse economic growth, and business cooperation. The African United Business Confederation was committed to forge strategic alliances that contribute to the economic development of our member nations. Qatar, with its vibrant business environment and diverse economic sectors, represented an excellent opportunity for collaboration.

The discussions throughout the state visit focused on solidification of partnerships in key sectors that are vital for the growth and prosperity of both regions. AUBC was keen to deepen the relationship between Africa and Qatar in sectors such as agro - processing, automotive, aquaculture, manufacturing, hydrocarbons, and infrastructure. The collaboration in these sectors was poised to create opportunities for investment, technological exchange, and knowledge transfer, which contribute to sustainable development in both Africa and Qatar.

As AUBC seeks to build bridges for commerce, trade and the acceleration of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA), the organization was optimistic about the positive outcomes that emerged from the discussions in this state visit. In conclusion, "The African United Business Confederation expressed gratitude to the State of Qatar, Qatari Businessmen Association and the Qatar Chamber of Commerce for their extremely successful deliberations in the business forum and looks forward to a fruitful collaboration that will strengthen the bonds between African and Qatari businesses." AUBC President George Sebulela remarked.
